

FY10 International Affairs Budget Fact Sheet

- ✓ The House FY10 State, Foreign Operations 302(b) allocation is
  - 2.4% below total FY09 enacted spending
  - Represents only 1.4% of the U.S. Federal Budget

- ✓ The FY10 allocation does not anticipate additional supplemental funding, so for an “apples-to-apples” comparison between FY10 and FY09, total FY09 funding must be included

- ✓ For the first time since 9/11, the FY10 Budget request includes entire funding for the International Affairs Budget, including funds for Iraq, Afghanistan and humanitarian assistance programs, which were largely handled through supplemental funding

- ✓ The House FY10 International Affairs Budget 302(b) allocation is 4% below total FY09 enacted spending

- ✓ The International Affairs Budget request represents less than 7% of the overall “national security budget”, which also includes Defense and Homeland Security

