With a major port in Savannah and one of the most trafficked airports in the world in Atlanta, exports are a critical component of Georgia's economy. Home to major companies like Coca-Cola and Delta, Georgians have seen firsthand the growth and job creation that results from engagement in the global economy. With more than 15,000 companies in the state exporting, international trade supports more than 1.25 million jobs in the state.

Georgia exported $41.3 billion in goods to foreign markets in 2019. Georgia’s largest markets in 2019 were:
- Canada ($6 billion)
- Mexico ($3.5 billion)
- Germany ($2.8 billion)
- China ($2.4 billion)
- Singapore ($2.1 billion)

Agricultural exports are important to Georgia’s economy, totaling $2.9 billion in 2018, according to the USDA.

Since 2014, the U.S. Export-Import Bank has financed $3 billion in exports from 141 companies in Georgia.

Since 1971, the Overseas Private Investment Corporation - which has been modernized into the Development Finance Corporation (DFC) - has invested $1.2 billion in Georgia companies for overseas investment.

Since 1992, the U.S. Trade and Development Agency has helped facilitate $524 million in exports from Georgia companies, supporting an estimated 3,100 jobs in the state.

Since 1961, 3,877 Peace Corps volunteers from Georgia have served in dozens of countries overseas.

In 2017-2018, 11,630 Georgia students studied abroad.

During 2019, 23,623 international students were enrolled in Georgia colleges and universities and contributed $851 million to the Georgia economy.
