Exports are a rapidly growing part of Nevada’s economy, with the state exporting over $10.5 billion worth of goods overseas in 2021, and international trade supporting nearly 418,000 jobs in the state.

Nevada exported $10.6 billion in goods to foreign markets in 2021, a 3% increase compared to 2020 driven by continued economic recovery from the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the global economy. Nevada’s largest markets in 2021 were:

- Switzerland ($2.1 billion)
- Mexico ($1.6 billion)
- Canada ($1.5 billion)
- China ($1.2 billion)
- Germany ($369 million)

Agricultural exports are important to Nevada’s economy, totaling $142 million in 2020, according to the USDA.

Since 2014, the U.S. Export-Import Bank has financed $99 million in exports from 26 companies in Nevada.

Since 1971, the Overseas Private Investment Corporation - which has been modernized into the Development Finance Corporation (DFC) - has invested $393 million in Nevada companies for overseas investment.

Since 1992, the U.S. Trade and Development Agency has helped facilitate $65 million in exports from Nevada companies.

Since 1961, 1,070 Peace Corps volunteers from Nevada have served in dozens of countries overseas.

In 2018-2019, 1,140 Nevada students studied abroad.

During 2020, 2,642 international students were enrolled in Nevada colleges and universities and contributed $73 million to the Nevada economy.
