Pennsylvania is one of the top ten states in the country for exports, generating over $42 billion worth of goods exports in 2019. With two major city centers in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, more than 15,000 Pennsylvania companies export goods across the globe each year. And 89% of Pennsylvania’s exporters are small and medium sized businesses.

Pennsylvania exported $42.5 billion in goods to foreign markets in 2019. Pennsylvania’s largest markets in 2019 were:
- Canada ($11.2 billion)
- Mexico ($4.2 billion)
- China ($2.5 billion)
- Japan ($2.4 billion)
- United Kingdom ($2.4 billion)

Agricultural exports are important to Pennsylvania’s economy, totaling $2.0 billion in 2018, according to the USDA.

Since 2014, the U.S. Export-Import Bank has financed $4 billion in exports from 207 companies in Pennsylvania.

Since 1971, the Overseas Private Investment Corporation - which has been modernized into the Development Finance Corporation (DFC) - has invested $1.6 billion in Pennsylvania companies for overseas investment.

Since 1992, the U.S. Trade and Development Agency has helped facilitate $1.3 billion in exports from Pennsylvania companies, supporting an estimated 7,800 jobs in the state.
